Part II – Mode of election and qualifications for election of President

2. Election of President

- (1) The election of the President shall be by universal adult suffrage through a secret ballot using one ballot box for all candidates at each polling station.
- (2) The election of the President shall, subject to article 61 of the Constitution, be held during the first thirty days of the last one hundred and twenty two days before the expiration of the term of the President.

subsection 2(2) amended by section 1 of [Act 11 of 2020]

- (3) Apart from the election required to be held by clause (2) of Article 61 of the Constitution, election of the President shall also be held in the following circumstances—
- (a) an election held under clause (6) of article 104 of the Constitution where a presidential election is annulled;

- (b) an election held under clause (3) of article 105 of the Constitution where the office has become vacant by expiration of the term of the President or if the incumbent dies or resigns or ceases to hold office as President by removal under article 107 of the Constitution;
- (c) an election held under clause (2) of article 109 of the Constitution within six months after the death, resignation or removal of the President; and
- (d) an election necessitated by the fact that a normal presidential election could not be held as a result of the existence of a state of war or a state of emergency in which case, the election shall be held within such a period as Parliament may, by law, prescribe.

3. Aspirant consultations

- (1) An aspirant may consult in preparation for his or her nomination as a presidential candidate.
[subsection (1) amended by section 1 of Act 14 of 2010]
- (2) While consulting under subsection (1), a presidential aspirant may—
 - (a) carry out nation-wide consultations;
 - (b) prepare his or her manifesto and other campaign materials;
 - (c) raise funds for his or her campaign through lawful means;
 - (d) convene meetings of national delegates.
- (3) While consulting, the aspirant shall introduce himself or herself to the Commission and notify the relevant local council and the police of the area to which he or she goes.

4. Qualifications for candidates

- (1) Subject to clause (7) of article 15 of the Constitution, a person is qualified for election as President if that person—
 - (a) is a citizen of Uganda by birth;
 - (b) is a registered voter; and
 - (c) has completed a minimum formal education of Advanced Level standard or its equivalent.
[subsection (1) substituted by section 2(a) of Act 11 of 2020]
- (2) The Commission shall request such evidence as it thinks necessary of the qualifications specified in subsection (1).
- (3) [subsection (3) repealed by section 2(b) of Act 11 of 2020]
- (4) A person is not qualified for election as a member of Parliament if that person—
 - (a) is of unsound mind;
 - (b) is holding or acting in an office the functions of which involve a responsibility for or in connection with the conduct of an election;
 - (c) is a traditional or cultural leader as defined in clause (6) of article 246 of the Constitution;
 - (d) has been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law in force in Uganda and has not been discharged;
 - (e) is under a sentence of death or a sentence of imprisonment exceeding nine months imposed by any competent court without the option of a fine;

- (f) has, within the seven years immediately preceding the election, been convicted by a competent court of a crime involving dishonesty or moral turpitude;
- (g) has, within the seven years immediately preceding the election, been convicted by a competent court for contravention of any law relating to elections conducted by the Commission.

[subsection (4) substituted by section 2(c) of Act 11 of 2020]

- (5) Under the movement political system, a person who is elected President while he or she is a member of a local government council or who holds a public office shall resign that office before assuming the office of President.
- (6) Under the multiparty political system, a public officer or a person employed in any government department or agency of the government or an employee of a local government or any body in which the government has controlling interest, who wishes to stand for election as President shall resign his or her office before nomination day.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (3)(c), any of the following persons wishing to stand for election as President shall establish his or her qualification with the Electoral Commission as a person holding a minimum qualification of Advanced level or its equivalent at least two months before nomination day, in the case of a normal presidential election, or where a presidential election is held otherwise than as a result of expiry of the term of the President, at least two weeks before nomination day—
 - (a) persons, whether their qualification is obtained from Uganda or outside Uganda, who are claiming to have their qualification accepted as equivalent to advanced level education;
 - (b) persons claiming to have advanced level qualifications obtained from outside Uganda;
 - (c) persons claiming to have academic degrees which were obtained from outside Uganda.
- (8) A person required to establish his or her qualification under subsection (7) shall do so by the production of a certificate issued to him or her by the National Council for Higher Education in consultation with the Uganda National Examinations Board.
- (9) A person who claims to possess a qualification referred to in subsection 7(c) of this section shall, before the issue of the certificate prove to the satisfaction of the National Council for Higher Education that admission to that qualification was obtained on the basis of Advanced Level Standard of Education or its equivalent.
- (10) The certificate issued under subsection (9) shall be in the form in the Second Schedule to this Act.
- (11) A certificate issued by National Council for Higher Education under subsection (8) shall be sufficient in respect of any election for which the same qualification is required.
- (12) A certificate issued by the National Council for Higher Education under any other enactment, to the same effect as a certificate required to be obtained under subsection (8) shall be sufficient for the purposes of subsection (3)(c).
- (13) A person aggrieved by the grant or refusal to grant a certificate by the National Council for Higher Education under this section is entitled to appeal to the High Court against the decision and the High Court may confirm, modify or reverse the decision.
- (14) The Chief Justice may, in consultation with the Attorney General make rules to regulate the procedure for appeals under subsection (14) and may for that purpose apply, with or without modifications, rules of court applicable to civil proceedings in the High Court.
- (15) For the avoidance of doubt, if a candidate has an advanced level certificate obtained in Uganda or qualifications higher than the prescribed qualification obtained in Uganda or obtained from the former University of East Africa or any of its constituent colleges, then, there shall be no need for the verification of his or her qualifications by the National Council for Higher Education.
- (16) The Electoral Commission shall not accept for the purpose of this section a statutory declaration or affidavit as evidence of an academic qualification required by this section.

- (17) Under the movement political system, a person holding a public office, or a member of a Local Government Council or a Commission established under the Constitution, wishing to be a candidate shall apply for leave of absence at least sixty days before the expiry of the term of the President; except that in the case of an election taking place other than by reason of the normal expiry of the term of the President, the person shall apply for leave at least fourteen days before the nomination for the election.
- (18) Where a person to whom subsection (17) applies wishes to be a candidate he or she shall, before proceeding on leave, relinquish any vehicle or office equipment in his or her custody belonging to his or her employer.
- (19) For the purposes of enforcing this section the Commission shall, by writing require any candidate to state in writing the facilities ordinarily attached to any office held by that person to which subsection (18) applies or by virtue of that office; and the candidate shall comply with the requirement.
- (20) Every employer to whom subsection (17) relates shall, upon receiving an application by an employee, grant to the employee leave of absence with pay, or where the employee has not earned leave, leave without pay, to seek nomination as a candidate and to be a candidate for election, and for such period as may be requested by the employee.
- (21) In this section, “public service” and “public officer” have the meanings assigned to them by article 257 of the Constitution; and “public officer” shall for the avoidance of doubt, include an employee of any Commission established by the Constitution.
- (22) This section applies with the necessary modifications, to an employee of a statutory corporation or of a company in which the Government owns a controlling interest as it applies to a public officer.
- (23) Where any person intends to stand for election he or she shall not accept office as an election officer.
- (24) A person to whom a certificate is issued under this section, shall pay to the National Council for Higher Education a prescribed fee for the certificate.

5. Forgery of certificate of academic qualification

- (1) A person who—
 - (a) forges a certificate purporting it to be issued by the National Council for Higher Education under section 4 or utters such a forged certificate; or
 - (b) forges any academic certificate for the purpose of nomination for any election under this Act or utters such a forged certificate, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred and forty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding ten years or both.
- (2) A court which convicts a person under this section shall sentence him or her to a fine not less than seventy two currency points or imprisonment not less than three years or both.

Part III – Information to returning officers and secrecy

6. Information to be given to returning officers

- (1) Whenever it is considered necessary and, in any case, immediately after the date of an election is appointed, the Commission shall transmit to every returning officer—
 - (a) sufficient copies of this Act, and such instructions prepared by the Commission, as are required for the proper conduct of an election by the returning officer and to enable the returning officer to supply to each election officer a copy of those instructions as each election officer may need;
 - (b) copies of the voters roll for each polling station within the electoral district;
 - (c) sufficient blank report books and other election materials; and

- (d) sufficient funds to cover all the expenses to be incurred by the returning officer in carrying out the electoral process.
- (2) The Commission shall also transmit to each returning officer as soon as practicable after nomination days, a sufficient number of ballot papers for each constituency within the electoral district of the returning officer in any case not later than twenty four hours before polling day.

subsection (2) amended by section 2 of [Act 14 of 2010]

7. Secrecy required of election officers and others

- (1) Every candidate, election officer, clerk, candidate's agent or other person in attendance at a polling station during the counting of the votes shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting, and a candidate, officer, clerk, candidate's agent or other person shall not—
 - (a) at the polling station, interfere with, or attempt to interfere with, a voter when marking the ballot paper, or otherwise attempt to obtain information with respect to the candidate for whom any voter is about to vote or has voted;
 - (b) at any time, communicate any information with respect to the manner in which any ballot paper has been marked in his or her presence in the polling station;
 - (c) at any time or place, directly or indirectly, induce or endeavour to induce any voter to show his or her ballot paper after he or she has marked it, so as to make known to any person the name of the candidate for or against whom the voter has cast his or her vote;
 - (d) at a polling station, induce or endeavour to induce any voter to vote for a person other than the person of his or her choice;
 - (e) at any time, communicate to any person any information obtained at a polling station with respect to the candidate for whom any voter at the polling station is about to vote or has voted; or
 - (f) at the counting of the votes, attempt to obtain any information or communicate any information obtained at the counting with respect to the candidate for whom any vote is given in any particular ballot paper.
- (2) A candidate, election officer, candidates agent or other person on duty at a polling station shall not, except for a purpose authorised by law, communicate to any person any information as to—
 - (a) the name of a voter who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at a polling station; or
 - (b) the number on the voters register of a voter who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at a polling station.
- (3) A person who has undertaken under section 38 to assist a blind, illiterate or other voter with disability to vote, shall not communicate at any time to another person information as to the candidate for whom the assisted voter intends to vote or has voted, or as to the number, if any, on the ballot paper given for the use of the voter.
- (4) A person shall, before assuming the duties of election officer, take and subscribe the oath in Form EO specified in the Sixth Schedule to this Act.
- (5) A person who contravenes subsection (1), (2) or (3), commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.
- (6) A election officer who, without lawful authority, reveals to any person any matter that has come to his or her knowledge or notice as a result of his or her appointment, commits an offence and is liable on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

Part IV – Nomination of candidates for election as President

8. Appointment of nomination days

- (1) The Commission shall issue a notice in the Gazette appointing two days during which the nomination of candidates are to take place indicating—
 - (a) the places and times fixed for the nomination of candidates; and
 - (b) the hours of each nomination day, during which nominations are to take place.
- (2) Every place fixed under subsection (1)(a) for the nomination of candidates shall be a public place such as a court house, city or town hall, community centre or other public or private building in a central place.
- (3) The hours to be indicated in accordance with subsection (1)(b) shall be from ten o'clock in the forenoon to four o'clock in the afternoon on each nomination day.

9. Sponsorship of candidates by political organisation or political party

Under the multiparty political system, nomination of candidates may be made by a registered political organisation or political party sponsoring a candidate or by a candidate standing for election as an independent candidate without being sponsored by a political organisation or political party.

10. Procedure of nomination

- (1) A person shall not be a candidate in a presidential election unless—
 - (a) that person submits to the Commission on or before the day appointed as nomination day in relation to the election, a document, in this Act referred to as a nomination paper, in the form specified in the Third Schedule to this Act, which is signed by that person, nominating him or her as a candidate; and
 - (b) the nomination is supported by not less than one hundred voters in each of at least two thirds of all the districts in Uganda.
- (2) A candidate shall be proposed and seconded in the manner specified in the Third Schedule to this Act.
- (3) Each candidate shall attach to his or her nomination paper a list of names of the registered voters required under subsection (1) (b); and each of those registered voters shall, append to that list his or her name, signature, physical address and voter registration number as specified in the Third Schedule.
- (4) A person shall not subscribe to more than one nomination paper and no person shall give his or her support under subsection (3) to more than one candidate.
- (5) A person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.
- (6) The nomination paper shall be accompanied by—
 - (a) a declaration in the form specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act;
 - (b) a non-refundable fee of one thousand currency points payable to the Uganda Administration in cash or bank draft; and [paragraph (b) amended by section 1 of Act 14 of 2015]
 - (c) three postcard size copies of a recent photograph of the proposed candidate; except that professional or occupational attire shall not be worn by the candidate in the photograph.
- (7) Where under the multi party political system, a person is sponsored by a political organisation or political party, the nomination paper shall indicate that he or she is so sponsored, stating the name and address of the political organisation or political party.
- (8) A person is not duly nominated as a candidate unless he or she has complied with subsection (6).

- (9) A returning officer shall not refuse to accept any nomination paper—
- (a) by reason of an alleged ineligibility of the candidate sought to be nominated, unless the ground for the alleged ineligibility appears on the nomination paper; or
 - (b) solely on account of any minor variation between the name of any person as it appears on the nomination paper and as it appears on the voters' roll, if the returning officer is reasonably satisfied that the variation is due to an error; or
 - (c) on account of any other imperfection in the nomination paper, if the returning officer is satisfied that there has been substantial compliance with this Act.
- (10) A nomination paper which a returning officer has refused to accept for filing may be replaced by another nomination paper or may be corrected; except that a new or corrected nomination paper shall be filed with the returning officer not later than the time for the closure of nominations specified in section (8).
- (11) The returning officer shall, immediately after the expiry of the nomination time, announce the name of every candidate who has been duly nominated.
- (12) For the purposes of the nomination of candidates for a presidential election, the returning officer shall be the chairperson of the Commission or a person designated in writing by the Commission.
- (13) A candidate who uses a convoy of vehicles for the purpose of his or her nomination shall have not more than two vehicles in the convoy and each vehicle shall bear police stickers and shall not carry more than ten persons.
- (14) A person who contravenes subsection (13) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

11. Factors which may invalidate a nomination

A person shall not be regarded as duly nominated and the nomination paper of any person shall be regarded as void if—

- (a) the person's nomination paper was not signed and seconded in accordance with section 10\(1\) and (2);
- (b) the nomination paper of the person was not accompanied by the list of names of registered voters as required by section 10\(1\) and (3);
- (c) the person has not complied with section 10\(6\);
- (d) the person seeking nomination was not qualified for election under section 4; or
- (e) the person seeking nomination has been duly nominated for election as a member of Parliament.

12. Payment of deposit

The deposit payable under section 10 shall be received by the Commission which shall issue a general receipt in respect of the deposit.

13. Inspection of nomination papers and lodging of complaints

A registered voter may—

- (a) during office hours on the nomination day, at the office of the returning officer or other place determined by the Commission, inspect any nomination paper filed with the returning officer;
- (b) after the closure of the nomination time and during such period as may be prescribed, inspect any nomination paper in respect of a candidate at such time and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed; and may lodge any complaint with the returning officer or the Commission in relation to any nomination in respect of a candidate challenging the qualifications of any person nominated.

[section 39 substituted by section 12 of Act 14 of 2010 and by section 7 of Act 11 of 2020]

40. Factors which may not prevent a person from voting

- (1) The claim of a person to vote at any election shall not be rejected by reason only—
 - (a) that one of the person's names has been omitted from the voters' register or from the voters roll; or
 - (b) by reason of the entry in the voters register or in the voters roll of a wrong village or of a wrongly spelt name, if, in the opinion of the presiding officer, the person is sufficiently identified.

- (2) The claim of a female voter to vote at any polling station shall not be rejected by reason only that she has changed her surname by reason of marriage and that the change has not been reflected in the voters register or the voters roll for the polling station.

41. Returning officer to have powers of justice of the peace

- (1) During an election and throughout the campaign and polling period, every returning officer and presiding officer or any other authorised agent of the Commission is a keeper of the peace and has all the powers of a justice of the peace, and he or she may—
 - (a) require the assistance of a member of the Uganda Police Force or other persons present to aid him or her in maintaining peace and good order at the polling station;
 - (b) warn or arrest or cause, by verbal order, to be arrested, and place or cause to be placed in the custody of any police officer or other person authorised by law, any person disturbing the peace and good order at the polling station; or
 - (c) cause any arrested person to be imprisoned under an order signed by him or her until not later than an hour after the closure of the poll.
- (2) The returning officer or presiding officer shall where he or she causes the arrest of any person under subsection (1), report the arrest gives details and reasons of the arrest in a form provided under the Fifth Schedule.

42. Presiding officer to appoint election constables

- (1) A presiding officer shall ensure that polling takes place in a free and secure environment.
- (2) A presiding officer other than a presiding officer for a polling station located in an urban area may, in the absence of a police officer, appoint at least one person present and resident within the area of the polling station as an election constable to maintain order at the polling station throughout polling day where the presiding officer finds the services of an election constable to be essential.
- (3) A presiding officer may only appoint a person other than a police officer to be an election constable under subsection (2) when there is actual or threatened disorder or when it is likely that a larger number of voters will seek to vote at the same time.
- (4) There shall be appointed at every polling centre established under section 33 (2) of the Electoral Commission Act one person in order to ensure the orderly and prompt entrance of the voters into their proper polling station within the centre.
- (5) When an election constable has been appointed by a presiding officer, the constable shall take and subscribe the oath in Form OC in the Sixth Schedule to this Act before commencing to discharge his or her responsibilities.
- (6) A presiding officer who appoints an election constable under subsection (2) shall announce publicly and record the appointment in the space provided for that purpose in the polling report book.
- (7) A presiding officer may, where he or she deems it necessary, request for police assistance and he or she shall record in writing, reasons which necessitated the request for the assistance.
- (8) For avoidance of doubt, a military personnel, a member of the Internal Security Organisation or the External Security Organisation shall not be appointed as an election constable.
- (9) In this section “urban area” means a town, municipality or the City of Kampala.

43. Arms and ammunition prohibited

- (1) A person shall not arm himself or herself during any part of polling day with any deadly weapon or approach within one kilometre of a polling station with deadly weapons unless called upon to do so by lawful authority or where he or she is ordinarily entitled by virtue of his or her office to carry arms.

- (2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, deadly weapon has the meaning assigned to it in section 286 of the Penal Code Act.

[subsection (3) inserted by section 5 of Act 14 of 2015]

44. Loud speakers prohibited at polling stations

- (1) A person shall not, on any polling day, for the purpose of promoting or opposing any candidate, use any loudspeaker or similar communication device prohibited within hearing distance of any polling station.
- (2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

45. Limitation on campaign period and on display of emblems etc., on polling day

- (1) The campaign period prescribed by the Commission under section 21(1) shall not extend beyond midnight of the day before polling day.
- (2) A person shall not—
 - (a) post or display on or in a polling station or in a hall, window or door of a building used as a polling station, any campaign literature, emblem, ensign, badge, label, ribbon, flag, banner, card, bill, poster or device, that could be taken as an indication of support for or opposition, to a candidate; or
 - (b) while in a polling station, display on his or her person any emblem, ensign, badge, label, ribbon, flag, banner, card or device as a badge intended or likely to be taken as intended to distinguish the wearer as a supporter of any candidate.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (1) prohibits a meeting of a candidate with his or her agents and facilitators for the election.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsection (2) an agent of a candidate may, in a polling station, display on his or her person, in such form as the Commission may authorise, a label identifying his or her function and the name of the candidate he or she represents.
- (5) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

46. Interruption and postponement of polling

- (1) Where polling at a polling station is interrupted by a riot or violence or any other event while there remains, in the voters register, voters who have not completed the polling process, the presiding officer shall adjourn the polling to the next day or to any other time of the same day and shall immediately seal and transfer the box to the nearest subcounty headquarters and inform the returning officer of the fact.
- (2) Where the polling is adjourned to the following day under subsection (1), the time, procedure and manner of the subsequent polling shall be as on the original polling day.

47. Complaints at polling

- (1) The candidates' agents and any voter present at a polling station may raise and present in writing complaints relating to the voting at the polling station and shall have the right to obtain information from the presiding officer concerning the counting process.

- (2) A presiding officer shall not refuse to receive a complaint presented to him or her under subsection (1) and shall initial every such presentation and annex it as part of the official record of the polling station.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), any presentation received by the presiding officer under this section shall be deliberated upon and resolved by the presiding officer and the polling assistants.
- (4) Subject to article 103(7) of the Constitution, where necessary in the opinion of the presiding officer to enable the voting process to proceed, the deliberation or resolution of a presentation under subsection (3) may be postponed until the completion of the voting process.

Part VII – Counting of votes and announcement of results

48. Votes to be counted at each polling station

- (1) Votes cast at a polling station shall be counted at the polling station immediately after the presiding officer declares the polling closed, and the votes cast in favour of each candidate shall be recorded separately in accordance with this Part of this Act.
- (2) Subject to section 55, no votes shall stay uncounted overnight and, where required, the presiding officer shall provide light for the purposes of counting votes.
- (3) A candidate is entitled to be present in person or through his or her representative or polling agent at each polling station throughout the voting and counting of the votes and at the place of the tallying of the votes and ascertaining of the results of the poll for the purposes of safeguarding the interests of the candidate with regard to all stages of the counting or tallying processes.
- (4) The presiding officer and the candidates or their agents, if any, shall sign and retain a copy of a declaration stating-
 - (a) the polling station;
 - (b) the number of votes cast in favour of each candidate; and the presiding officer shall there and then announce the results of the voting at that polling station before communicating them to the returning officer.
- (5) Votes cast for each candidate shall be recorded in both figures and words and countersigned by polling agents before the declaration of the results.
- (6) The following shall apply in respect of the signing of the declaration and the announcement of the results of voting under subsection (4)—
 - (a) the candidates or their agents shall sign the declaration form before the announcement of the results under subsection (4);
 - (b) where any of the candidates or their agents refuse or fail to sign the declaration form—
 - (i) the candidates and their agents refusing or failing to sign shall record on the declaration form the reasons for the refusal or failing to sign; and
 - (ii) where they refuse or fail to record the reasons, the presiding officer shall record the fact of their refusal or failure;
 - (c) where any candidate or agent is absent, the presiding officer shall record the fact of that absence;
 - (d) the refusal or failure of a candidate or agent to sign any declaration form under subsection (4) or to record the reasons for that refusal to sign as required under this subsection shall not by itself invalidate the results announced under subsection (4);
 - (e) the absence of a candidate or an agent from the signing of a declaration form or the announcement of results under subsection (4) shall not by itself invalidate the results announced.
- (7) At the commencement of the counting, the presiding officer shall, in the presence and full view of all present, open the ballot box and empty its contents onto the polling table and with the assistance of polling assistants proceed to count the votes separating the votes polled by each candidate.

49. Complaints during the counting of votes

- (1) A candidate or a candidate's agent or any voter present may raise any objection during the counting of the votes, and each presiding officer shall—
 - (a) keep a record, in the report book, of every objection made by any candidate or a candidate's agent or any voter present, to any ballot paper found in the ballot box; and
 - (b) decide every question arising out of the objection.
- (2) An objection recorded under subsection (1) shall be numbered and a corresponding number placed on the back of the ballot paper to which it relates, and the ballot paper shall be initialled by the presiding officer and it shall be witnessed by the polling assistants and candidates' agents.
- (3) The decision of a presiding officer in respect of an objection raised under subsection (1) is final, subject to reversal only on recount ordered by the court upon an election petition.

50. Votes to be treated as invalid

- (1) A vote cast is invalid if—
 - (a) the ballot paper is torn into two or more parts; or
 - (b) where the voting is by placing a mark of choice on the ballot paper—
 - (i) the voter marks the ballot with a mark other than the authorised mark of choice; or
 - (ii) places the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper in such a way that the choice of the voter cannot be reasonably ascertained.
- (2) A ballot paper shall not be taken as invalid under this section, irrespective of where the authorised mark of choice is placed, so long as the voter's choice can be reasonably ascertained.
- (3) A vote which is invalid shall not be counted in determining the results of the election.

51. Declaration of results forms

- (1) Each presiding officer shall fill the necessary number of copies of the prescribed form for the declaration of results as follows—
 - (a) one copy of the completed form shall remain attached to the report book referred to in section 6\(1\)\(c\);
 - (b) one copy shall be retained by the presiding officer for display at a conspicuous place at the polling station;
[paragraph (b) amended by section 14(a)(i) of Act 14 of 2010]
 - (c) one copy shall be enclosed in an envelope supplied by the Commission for the purpose, sealed by the presiding officer and delivered to the sub-county headquarters or division headquarters to the designated officer of the Commission, together with the report book for transmission to the returning officer.
[paragraph (c) substituted by section 14(a)(ii) of Act 14 of 2010]
 - (d) one copy shall be delivered to each of the candidates' agents or, in the absence of those agents, be retained by the presiding officer who shall transmit it to the returning officer; and
 - (e) one copy shall be deposited and sealed in the ballot box.

- (2) The presiding officer shall, in the presence of the candidates and the candidates' agents as may wish to be present, seal the ballot box with a seal provided for the purpose by the Commission.
- (2a) A presiding officer who without reasonable cause fails to cause to be posted a copy of the duly filled and signed declaration result form in contravention of subsection (1) (c) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 12 currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.
- [subsection (2a) inserted by section 14(b) of Act 14 of 2010]*
- (3) The sealed ballot box referred to in subsection (2) shall contain the following items—
- (a) one duly signed declaration of results form;
 - (b) the ballot papers received by each candidate, tied in separate bundles;
 - (c) the invalid ballot papers, tied in one bundle;
 - (d) the spoilt ballot papers, tied in one bundle;
 - (e) the unused ballot papers; and
 - (f) the voters' roll used at the polling station.
- (4) The declaration of results form referred to in sub-section (1) shall be signed by the presiding officer and the candidates or their agents as are present and wish to do so, and section 48\(3\) and (4) shall apply.

52. Collection of results

- (1) The presiding officer shall immediately after close of polls, deliver the declared results and the sealed ballot box to the sub-county headquarters or the division headquarters to the designated officer of the Commission, together with the report book for transmission to the returning officer.
- [subsection (1) substituted by section 15(a) of Act 14 of 2010]*
- (1a) A polling agent who wishes to accompany the presiding officer to witness the delivery under subsection (1) may do so at his or her own expense.
- [subsection (1a) inserted by section 15(b) of Act 14 of 2010]*
- (2) Each presiding officer shall, without any delay after closing the poll, transmit or deliver to the returning officer or to the nearest results collecting centre—
- (a) the sealed ballot box;
 - (b) the duly filled and signed declaration of results form;
 - (c) the report book filled in and signed by the presiding officer and the polling assistants.

53. Safekeeping of election materials and records

- (1) The returning officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of all the election documents used in the district in connection with an election until the documents are destroyed in accordance with the directions of the Commission; but the Commission shall not give such directions before the settlement of disputes, if any, arising from the election.
- (2) A returning officer shall, on the receipt of each ballot box—
- (a) take every precaution for its safe custody;
 - (b) examine the seal affixed to the ballot box, with a view to ensuring that the box is properly sealed, and
 - (c) if the box is not in good order, record his or her observations and affix a different seal supplied by the Commission.

54. Tallying of results by returning officer

- (1) After all the envelopes containing the declaration of results forms have been received, the returning officer shall, in the presence of the candidates or their agents or such of them as wish to be present, open the envelopes and add up the number of votes cast for each candidate as recorded on each form.
- (2) The returning officer may open the envelopes and add up the number of votes cast even though some of the envelopes have not been received, if the candidates or the candidates' agents and a police officer not below the rank of inspector of police are present.
- (3) Where any envelope under subsection (1) does not contain the results of the poll, the returning officer may, for the purpose of finalising a statement of the poll, use the declaration of results form in the presiding officer's report book.
- (4) If the report book does not contain the declaration of results form duly filled by the presiding officer, the returning officer may, in the presence of a police officer, not below the rank of Inspector of Police and any of the candidates or candidates' agents who wish to be present, open the ballot box in order to obtain the declaration of results form for the purpose of adding up the results of the poll.
- (5) Where the returning officer opens the ballot box under subsection (4) he or she shall re-seal the ballot box immediately after ascertaining the results with the declaration of results forms re-sealed in the envelopes in the ballot box.

55. Interruption and postponement of counting or tallying

- (1) Where counting or tallying of votes is interrupted by a riot or violence or any other reasonable cause, the presiding officer or returning officer shall adjourn the counting or tallying to the next day or to any other time of the same day and shall immediately inform—
 - (a) in the case of the presiding officer, the returning officer; or
 - (b) in the case of the returning officer, the Commission,of that fact.
- (2) Where the counting or tallying of votes is adjourned to the following day under subsection (1), the time, procedure and manner of the subsequent counting, tallying or recounting shall be as on the original occasion.
- (3) Where counting is adjourned under this section, the ballot boxes shall be kept in safe custody and the candidates or their agents shall be entitled to be present to keep watch on the boxes until counting resumes.

56. Returning officer to transmit return and documents to Commission

- (1) Each returning officer shall, immediately after the addition of the votes under section 54\(1\), declare the number of votes obtained by each candidate and also complete a return in the prescribed form, indicating the number of votes obtained by each candidate.
- (2) Upon completing the return, every returning officer shall—
 - (a) transmit to the commission, with a copy to participating political parties and organisations, a candidate and a candidate's official agent, the following documents electronically—
 - (i) the return form;
 - (ii) the tally sheets; and
 - (iii) the declaration of results forms from which the official addition of the votes was made; and
 - (b) deliver to the commission the documents referred to in paragraph (a).

[subsection (2) substituted by section 8 of Act 11 of 2020]

- (3) A returning officer shall compile and submit to the Commission, within seven days after the conclusion of the election, a report of the election within the returning officer's electoral district.

[subsection (3) inserted by section 16(b) of Act 14 of 2010]

57. Declaration of results of presidential election

- (1) The Commission shall ascertain, publish and declare in writing under its seal the results of the presidential election within forty-eight hours from the close of polling.
- (2) The declaration under subsection (1) shall be in Form B or Form C as specified in the Seventh Schedule to this Act as the case may be.
- (3) The results shall be published in the national media and the Commission shall as soon as practicable, cause them to be published in the Gazette.
- (4) A candidate shall not be declared elected as President unless the number of votes cast in favour of that candidate at the presidential election is more than fifty percent of the valid votes cast at the election.
- (5) Where at a presidential election there are more than two candidates and no candidate obtains the number or percentage of votes specified in subsection (4), a second election shall be held within thirty days after the declaration of the results in which election the two candidates who obtained the highest number of votes shall be the only candidates.
- (6) Subject to article 103 of the Constitution the candidate who obtains the highest number of votes in an election under subsection (5) shall be the elected President.
- (7) A declaration executed by the Commission under subsection (1) and bearing the seal of the Commission shall be evidence that the person named in the declaration has been elected President.
- (8) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after each presidential election, produce a detailed report on the conduct of the election.
- (9) For the purposes of a report under subsection (8), every candidate at an election and every agent of any candidate has the right to send to the Commission a statement in writing containing any complaint that he or she may wish to make with respect to the conduct of the election or of any election officer and any suggestions with respect to such changes or improvements in the law or in the administrative arrangements as he or she may consider desirable.
- (10) Sub-sections (7), (8) and (9) shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to an election in which an unopposed candidate is declared elected under section 19.

58. Assumption of office of elected President

- (1) A person elected President during the term of a President shall assume office within twenty four hours after the expiration of the term of the predecessor and in any other case, within twenty four hours after being declared elected President.
- (2) Before assuming the duties of the office of President a person elected President shall take and subscribe the oath of allegiance and the presidential oath specified in the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution.

Part VIII – Challenging presidential election

59. Challenging presidential election

- (1) An aggrieved candidate may petition the Supreme Court for an order that a candidate declared elected as President was not validly elected.
- (2) A petition under subsection (1) shall be in a form prescribed by the Chief Justice under subsection (11) and shall be lodged in the Supreme Court registry within fifteen days after the declaration of the election results.

[subsection (2) amended by section 9(a) of Act 11 of 2020]

- (3) The Supreme Court shall inquire into and determine the petition expeditiously and shall declare its findings and reasons not later than forty five days from the date the petition is filed.

[subsection (3) substituted by section 9(b) of Act 11 of 2020]

- (4) Where no petition is filed within the time prescribed under subsection (2), or where a petition having been filed, is withdrawn by the person who filed it or is dismissed by the Supreme Court, the candidate declared elected shall conclusively be taken to have been duly elected as President.
- (5) After due inquiry under subsection (3), the Supreme Court may—
- (a) dismiss the petition;
 - (b) declare which candidate was validly elected; or
 - (c) annul the election.
- (6) The election of a candidate as President shall only be annulled on any of the following grounds if proved to the satisfaction of the court—
- (a) non-compliance with the provisions of this Act, if the court is satisfied that the election was not conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in those provisions and that the non compliance affected the result of the election in a substantial manner;
 - (b) that the candidate was at the time of his or her election not qualified or was disqualified for election as President;
 - (c) that an offence under this Act was committed in connection with the election by the candidate personally or with his or her knowledge and consent or approval.
- (7) Nothing in this section confers on the Supreme Court power to convict a person for a criminal offence when hearing an election petition.
- (8) Where upon hearing a petition and before coming to a decision, the Court is satisfied that a recount is necessary and practical, it may order a recount of the votes cast.
- (9) Where it appears to the Supreme Court on hearing an election petition under this section that the facts before it disclose that a criminal offence may have been committed, it shall make a report on the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions for appropriate action to be taken and shall state in the report the name of the person, the nature of the offence and any other information that the court considers relevant and appropriate for the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (10) Where an election is annulled, a fresh election shall be held within sixty days from the date of the annulment.
- [subsection (10) amended by section 9(c) of Act 11 of 2020]*
- (11) The Chief Justice shall, in consultation with the Attorney General, make rules providing for the conduct of petitions under this Act.

60. Witnesses in election petition

- (1) At the trial of an election petition—
- (a) any witness shall be summoned and sworn in the same manner as a witness may be summoned and sworn in civil proceedings;
 - (b) the court may summon and examine any person who in the opinion of the court is likely to assist the court to arrive at an appropriate decision;

- (c) any person summoned by the court under paragraph (b) may be cross-examined by the parties to the petition if they so wish.
- (2) A witness who in the course of the trial of an election petition wilfully makes a statement material to the proceedings-
- (a) which he or she knows to be false; or
 - (b) which he or she does not know to be true; or
 - (c) which is false and in respect of which he is reckless whether it is true or false,
- commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

61. Withdrawal of election petition

- (1) An election petition shall not be withdrawn except with leave of the court and after such notice has been given as the court may direct.
- (2) On the hearing of the application for withdrawal, any candidate who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition refers may apply to the court to be substituted as a petitioner for the petitioner who desires to withdraw.
- (3) The court may substitute as a petitioner any applicant under subsection (2) and may further, if the proposed withdrawal has been, in the opinion of the court, induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, by order, direct that any security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may become payable by the substituted petitioner and that the original petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs.
- (4) If a petition is withdrawn the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

62. Petition to abate on death of petitioner

An election petition shall abate at the death of the sole petitioner or of all the petitioners.

63. Saving in respect of vacation of office

Where as a result of the determination of an election petition the election of a person as President is set aside, the determination shall not invalidate anything done by that person prior to the determination, in the purported exercise of the functions of the office of President.

Part IX – Illegal practices

64. Bribery

- (1) A person who, either before or during an election with intent, either directly or indirectly to influence another person to vote or to refrain from voting for any candidate, gives or provides or causes to be given or provided any money, gift or other consideration to that other person, commits the offence of bribery and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding seventy two currency points or imprisonment not exceeding three years or both.
- (2) A person who receives any money, gift or other consideration under subsection (1) also commits the offence under that subsection.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of the provision of refreshments or food—
 - (a) offered by a candidate or candidate's agent who provides refreshments or food as an election expense at a candidates' campaign planning and organisation meeting; or

- (b) offered by any person other than a candidate or a candidate's agent who, at his or her own expense provides the refreshments or food at a candidates' campaign planning and organisation meeting.
- (4) An offence under subsection (1) shall be an illegal practice.
- (5) Every candidate or candidate's agent who, by himself or herself or any other person, directly or indirectly, before the close of polls on polling day offers, procures or provides or promises to procure or provide any alcoholic beverage to any person commits an illegal practice.
- (6) A person who during the campaign in respect of an election, solicits from a candidate or a candidate's agent any money, gift, alcoholic beverage or other consideration in return for directly or indirectly influencing another person to vote or refraining from voting for a candidate or in consideration for his or her voting for the candidate or not voting for another candidate, commits an illegal practice.
- (7) A candidate or an agent of a candidate shall not carry out fundraising and the giving of donations during the period of campaigning.
- [subsection (7) inserted by section 17 of Act 14 of 2010]*
- (8) A person who contravenes subsection (7) commits an illegal practice and is liable on conviction to the penalty prescribed in section 68.
- [subsection (8) inserted by section 17 of Act 14 of 2010]*
- (9) For the purpose of this section, fundraising shall not include the soliciting of funds for a candidate to organise for elections.
- [subsection (9) inserted by section 17 of Act 14 of 2010 and amended by section 10 of Act 11 of 2020]*

65. Procuring prohibited persons to vote

A person who votes or induces or procures any person to vote at an election, knowing that that person is prohibited by law from voting at that election, commits an illegal practice.

66. Publication of false statements as to illness, death or withdrawal of candidate

A person who, before or during an election, publishes a false statement of the illness, death or withdrawal of a candidate at that election for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of another candidate knowing that statement to be false or not knowing or believing it on reasonable grounds to be true, commits an illegal practice.

67. Obstruction of voters

A person who, at an election, or on nomination days, wilfully obstructs a voter, or an aspiring candidate either at the polling station or nomination centre or on his or her way to or from, the polling station, or nomination centre, commits an illegal practice.

68. Penalty for certain illegal practices, under sections 64, 65, 66 and 67

A person who commits an illegal practice under sections 64(4), (5), (6) or (8) or section 65, 66 or 67, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding forty eight currency points or imprisonment not exceeding two years or both.

[section 68 amended by section 18 of Act 14 of 2010]

Part X – Other election offences

69. False statements concerning character of candidates

- (1) A person who, before or during an election for the purpose of effecting or preventing the election of a candidate, makes or publishes or causes to be made or published by words whether written or spoken, or by song in relation to the personal character of a candidate, a false statement—

- (a) which he or she knows or has reason to believe to be false or
- (b) in respect of which he or she is reckless whether it is true or false, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twelve currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

70. Misconduct at candidates' meetings

- (1) A person who, at any candidates meeting relating to an election, acts in a disorderly manner for the purpose of disrupting and preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is held commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.
- (2) The chairperson of a meeting to which this section applies may direct any person who, in the opinion of the chairperson, is preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is being held to leave the place; and if the person fails or refuses to leave, the chairperson may cause that person to be removed from that place using such force as may be reasonably necessary.
- (3) A person who has in accordance with subsection (2), left or who has been removed from a place in which a meeting to which this section applies is taking place, shall not, without the permission of the chairperson of the meeting, return to that place while the meeting is still in progress.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twelve currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

71. Failure by presiding officers to furnish election returns

A presiding officer who fails without lawful excuse to furnish the returns of the election to the returning officer within the time in which that person is required to furnish those returns commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

72. Offences relating to voting

A person who—

- (a) forges or fraudulently defaces or destroys any document relating to the holding of an election, or alters any such document or delivers to the returning officer any document, knowing it to be forged;
- (b) forges, counterfeits or destroys any ballot paper or the official mark on any ballot paper;
- (c) without authority supplies any ballot paper to any person;
- (d) without authority sells or offers to sell any document relating to the holding of an election to any person or purchases or offers to purchase any such document from any person;

commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five hundred currency points or imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or both.

[section 79A inserted by section 11 of Act 11 of 2020]

Part XI – General

80. Prior consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions to prosecute

- (1) A person shall not be prosecuted for an offence under this Act without the consent in writing of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not prevent a person from being—
- (a) charged with an offence under this Act;
 - (b) arrested with or without warrant in respect of any such offence; or
 - (c) remanded on bail or in custody in respect of any such offence;
- without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (3) In a prosecution for an offence under this Act in relation to a ballot paper or other document, the property in the ballot paper or other document, as well as the property in the counterfoil of any ballot paper, shall be stated to be vested in the Commission.

81. Time within which criminal proceedings must be commenced

Proceedings against a person in respect of any offence under this Act shall be commenced within three months after the offence which is alleged to have been committed or within one month after a court finds, on trial of a petition, that an offence may have been committed.

82. A person not to be required to divulge how he or she voted

No person who has voted at an election shall in any legal proceedings, whether taken to question the election or return or otherwise, be required to state for whom he or she has voted.

83. Penalty for interruption

A person who wilfully interrupts, obstructs or disturbs any proceeding taken under this Act in connection with an election, or disturbs the peace and good order of any such proceedings, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

84. Service of notice and documents

- (1) A public notice required to be given by any person under this Act shall, except where it is expressly directed to be published in the Gazette or in any other particular manner, be sufficiently given if it is published in a newspaper circulating in the constituency or area intended to be affected by the notice or if it is posted outside the principal outer door of every magistrates court office in that constituency or area or in such other place or places, if any, as the Commission may determine.
- (2) Except as otherwise specially provided in this Act and without derogation from the Interpretation Act, when any notice or other document is required to be served on any person under this Act, it may be served—
 - (a) by delivering it to the person to whom it is addressed or his or her authorised agent;
 - (b) by leaving it at his or her last known place of residence or any place of residence stated on a voters roll as his or her place of residence; or
 - (c) by sending it to any place of residence referred to in paragraph (b) through the post by registered letter marked upon the outside “electoral notice letter”; and, unless the contrary is proved, the notice or other document shall be taken to have been served at the time at which the registered letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

85. When appointed dates fall on weekend or public holiday

Whenever under this Act anything is required to be commenced, concluded or done on a particular day, and that day happens to fall upon a Saturday or Sunday or public holiday, that thing shall be commenced, concluded or done on the day next succeeding the Sunday or public holiday or, if the last mentioned day is also a Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday, then on the day next succeeding the Sunday or public holiday.

86. Publications in media

Whenever any matter is required to be published in the Gazette, it shall also as soon as practicable, be published in a newspaper circulating in the relevant area.

87. Modification of Act pursuant to change in political system under article 74

- (1) Where a new political system is adopted in accordance with article 74 of the Constitution, this Act, and any statutory instruments made under it, shall have effect subject to such modifications as are practical and necessary to give effect to the adoption of the new political system under article 74 of the Constitution.
- (2) Where a new political system is adopted as referred to in subsection (1), the Minister may, with the prior approval of Parliament, make such regulations as may be necessary for giving effect to the change in the political system for the purposes of this Act and may, in particular, subject to subsection (1), where necessary, by such regulations, make different provision for campaigning than what is prescribed under this Act.

88. Regulations

- (1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Commission and with the approval of Parliament, by statutory instrument, make regulations for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.
- (2) Without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (1), regulations may be made under that subsection for any or all of the following matters—
 - (a) the form of any document to be used in carrying out any purposes of this Act other than forms in proceedings before a court under this Act;
 - (b) the duties of election officers, including the manner of identifying voters for issuing to them of ballot papers and the questions to be put to them;

- (c) such measures to be taken in connection with an election as may be desirable or expedient to ensure that—
 - (i) employers provide their employees with an opportunity to vote in any election;
 - (ii) candidates are afforded reasonable and equal access to the use of State-owned communication media, for the purposes of complying with article 67(2) and (3) of the Constitution and section 23 (1) and (2) of this Act.
- (d) where practicable, measures necessary for ensuring that Ugandans qualified to vote but resident outside Uganda, are enabled to vote.
- (3) Regulations made under this section may provide in respect of a contravention of the regulations any penalty not exceeding a fine of twelve currency points or imprisonment not six months or both.

89. Power of Minister to amend First Schedule

The Minister may, with the approval of the Cabinet, by statutory instrument, amend the First Schedule to this Act.

90. Repeal and saving

- (1) The Presidential Elections Act is repealed.
- (2) Without prejudice to the Interpretation Act, any statutory instrument, form or other document made or issued under or existing by virtue of the Presidential Elections Act, and in force at the commencement of this Act, shall, with the necessary modifications, continue in force until revoked or replaced under this Act.
- (3) The constituencies to be used for an election under this Act shall be those used for parliamentary elections under the Parliamentary Elections Act.
