3. Application

This Act does not apply to—

- (a) a person employed by the Government in an honorary capacity; or
- (b) a person remunerated by fees, allowances or commission.

Part II – Changes in ministries of the Government

4. Changes in Government ministries

Where any ministry is abolished or any ministry is established in addition to, or in lieu of any such ministry, or an alteration is made in the name of any ministry, upon notification of the fact in the Gazette, the Second Schedule shall be deemed to be amended in the following manner—

- (a) where any ministry is abolished or another ministry established in lieu of any such ministry, by the omission of the reference to the ministry which has been abolished or in lieu of which another ministry has been established;
- (b) where any ministry is established either in addition to or in lieu of any ministry, by the addition of the name of the ministry so established; and
- (c) where an alteration is made in the name of any ministry, by a similar alteration of the name of the ministry.

Part III – Objective, composition and management of the public service

5. Objective of the public service

The objective of public service is to enable the Government to formulate and implement policies and programmes of Government for the development of Uganda.

6. Composition of the public service

The public service shall be composed of all persons duly appointed by the appropriate service commission or other relevant appointing authority to hold or act in any office in the public service.

7. Management and administration of the public service

- (1) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution, the Minister—
 - (a) shall subject to subsection (2) of this section, have authority for the overall management and administration of the public service including formulation and review of policies relating to structures, management systems and the terms and conditions of service;
 - (b) shall receive and consider on behalf of the Government, proposals for remuneration and benefits of persons whose emoluments are payable directly from the Consolidated Fund, or out of moneys provided by Parliament;
 - (c) shall liaise with the President in the performance of the President's functions under article 171 of the Constitution to establish offices in the public service;
 - (d) may prescribe or vary the common cadre list by regulations after consultation with the appropriate service commission or other relevant authority; and
 - (e) shall issue guidelines for the deployment of the common cadre and coordinate the deployment.
- (2) Subject to subsection 7(1), the day to day management and administration of the public service of a district shall be the responsibility of the Chief Administrative Officer who shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the district.

Part IV – Head of Public Service and Permanent Secretaries

8. Head of the Public Service

- (1) In accordance with article 173A (1) of the Constitution, the President shall, acting on the advice of the Public Service Commission appoint the Head of the Public Service.
- (2) In accordance with article 173A (2) of the Constitution, the functions of the Head of the Public Service are as follows—
 - (a) tendering advice to the President on matters relating to the Public Service;
 - (b) coordination of the activities of Permanent Secretaries;
 - (c) supervision of the work of Permanent Secretaries;
 - (d) serving as a link between the Executive and the Public Service;
 - (e) serving as a link between Service Commissions;
 - (f) ensuring the implementation of Cabinet and other Government decisions; and
 - (g) any other duties assigned to him or her from time to time by the President.

9. Deputy Head of the Public Service

- (1) In accordance with articles 171 and 172 of the Constitution, the President may, acting in accordance with the advice of the Public Service Commission, appoint the Deputy Head of the Public Service.
- (2) The Deputy Head of the Public Service shall deputise for the Head of the Public Service.
- (3) The Deputy Head of the Public Service shall perform such other functions or duties assigned to him or her by the Head of the Public Service.

10. Permanent Secretaries

- (1) In accordance with article 174 of the Constitution, a ministry or department of the Government shall be under the supervision of a Permanent Secretary whose office shall be a public office.
- (2) A Permanent Secretary shall be appointed by the President, acting in accordance with the advice of the Public Service Commission.

- (3) In accordance with clause (3) of article 174 of the Constitution, the functions of a Permanent Secretary shall include—
- (a) organisation and management of the ministry or department;
 - (b) tendering advice to the responsible Minister in respect of the business of the ministry or department;
 - (c) implementation of the policies of the Government;
 - (d) subject to article 164 of the Constitution, responsibility for the proper expenditure of public funds by or in connection with the ministry or department.
- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (3) of this section, the management and administration of a ministry or department shall be the responsibility of a Permanent Secretary who shall be the Chief Executive of that ministry or department.

11. Chief Administrative Officers and town clerks

- (1) A district shall be under the supervision of a Chief Administrative Officer in accordance with article 188 of the Constitution and section 63 of the Local Governments Act.
- (2) The Chief Administrative Officer shall be appointed by the Public Service Commission in accordance with article 188(2) of the Constitution and section 63 of the Local Governments Act.

Part V – Obligations, rights and privileges of public officers

12. Obligations of public officers in relation to the public service

Subject to the provisions of the constitution and any other written law, public officers shall—

- (a) owe allegiance and loyalty to the Government and shall advise on, develop and defend the policies of the Government at all times;
- (b) unreservedly tender advice to the Government in respect of the business of their ministry or department or district;
- (c) in performing their duties, be transparent, accountable, impartial and professional;
- (d) in performing their duties, exhibit expertise and integrity and portray a good image of the public service;
- (e) in performing their duties, apply such management techniques as may be prescribed to ensure economy, efficiency and cost effectiveness in service delivery; and
- (f) promote the growth and development of the private sector as the principal engine of growth of the economy.

13. Protection of public officers

In accordance with article 173 of the Constitution, a public officer shall not be—

- (a) victimized or discriminated against for having performed his or her duties faithfully in accordance with the Constitution; or
- (b) dismissed or removed from office or reduced in rank or otherwise punished without just cause.

14. Performance evaluation and disciplining of public officers

- (1) The evaluation of performance of public officers shall be based on such objective, open and interactive performance appraisal system as may be prescribed.
- (2) Public officers shall be disciplined and removed from the public service only in accordance with laid down regulations and procedures.
- (3) A public officer aggrieved by any administrative or other decision taken against him or her shall have a right to appeal to the relevant authority, including a court of law.
- (4) The service commissions shall put in place a tribunal to handle appeals from public officers.
- (5) Appeals shall be disposed of in a period not exceeding 90 days.

15. Rights and privileges of public officers

The rights and privileges of public officers shall be in accordance with the applicable law, including relevant statutory instruments, regulations and administrative instructions issued from time to time.

16. Participation in labour union activities by public officers

The participation of public officers in labour union activities shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and the applicable legislation providing for public service negotiating and disputes settlement machinery.

Part VI – Miscellaneous provisions
