IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister responsible for Finance, Planning and Economic Development, by section 141 of the Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2013, and on the advice of the Financial Intelligence Authority Board, these Regulations are made this 24th day of December, 2015.

Part I – Preliminary

1. Title

These Regulations may be cited as the Anti-Money Laundering Regulations, 2015.

2. Interpretation

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

"Act" means the Anti-Money Laundering Act, 2013;

"Authority" means the Financial Intelligence Authority established under Part IV of the Act;

"business relationship" means an arrangement between a person and an accountable person, where the purpose or effect of the arrangement is to facilitate the carrying out of a transaction between the person and the accountable person on a habitual, regular or one-off basis;

"customer" in relation to a transaction or an account, means—

(a) the person in whose name a transaction or account is arranged, opened or undertaken;

(b) a signatory to a transaction or account;

(c) a person to whom a transaction has been assigned or transferred;

(d) a person who is authorised to conduct a transaction; or

(e) a person prescribed by the Authority as a customer.

"customs officer" has the meaning assigned to it in the East African Community Customs Management Act, 2004;

"beneficiary financial institution" means a financial institution which receives a wire transfer from an ordering financial institution directly or through an intermediary financial institution and makes the funds available to the beneficiary;

"cross-border wire transfer" includes—
Part II – Registration of accountable persons

3. Register of accountable persons

(1) The Authority shall establish and maintain a register of accountable persons.

(2) The register shall be kept in electronic form or some other appropriate form determined by the Financial Intelligence Authority Board.

(3) The Authority shall record in the register details of all accountable persons registered by the Authority.

(4) The Authority shall make the register available to the public and shall post the list of accountable persons on the Authority’s website.

4. Registration of accountable persons

(1) Every accountable person shall register with the Authority, within one year from the commencement of these Regulations, or such other period as the Authority may specify.

(2) An accountable person shall apply for registration using Form 1 in the Schedule.

(3) Without prejudice to subregulation (1), an accountable person shall, for purposes of registration, provide the following details to the Authority—
(a) the name of the accountable person;
(b) the physical, postal and email address of the accountable person;
(c) the status and proof of registration or incorporation of the accountable person, where the accountable person is not an individual.

5. Notification of change of registered particulars of accountable persons

(1) Where the particulars of an accountable person contained in the register change, the accountable person shall, within fifteen days after the change, notify the Authority.

(2) The notification under subsection (1) shall be made using Form 2 in the Schedule.

Part III – Money laundering control officers

6. Money laundering control officer

(1) Every accountable person who maintains accounts for clients or customers shall appoint or designate a money laundering control officer.

(2) An accountable person shall notify the Authority of the appointment or designation of a money laundering control officer using Form 3 in the Schedule.

(3) A person shall not be appointed a money laundering control officer unless that person occupies a senior managerial position and possesses sufficient professional experience and competence in the business of the accountable person.

(4) Without prejudice to subregulation (3), the following persons do not qualify to be appointed as a money laundering control officer—

(a) an internal auditor; or

(b) a chief executive officer or a person of a similar rank, except where the accountable person is a sole proprietorship or a single member company.

(5) Where a person ceases, for any reason, to be a money laundering control officer, the accountable person shall notify the Authority of such fact.

(6) The notification under subregulation (5) shall be made within fifteen days after the person ceases to be a money laundering control officer.

(7) The notification under subregulation (5) shall be made using Form 3 in the Schedule.

7. Role of money laundering control officer

(1) The role of a money laundering control officer is—

(a) to act as the liaison person between the accountable person and the Authority in matters relating to coordination and compliance to anti-money laundering and combating terrorism financing;

(b) to develop and implement systems, mechanisms and procedures to ensure that the staff of the accountable person immediately report any suspicious money laundering or financing of terrorism activity;

(c) to notify the Authority, on behalf of the accountable person, of any suspicious money laundering or financing of terrorism activity.
(2) For the purposes of this regulation, an accountable person shall ensure that all staff report any suspicious activity relating to money laundering and terrorist financing to the money laundering control officer.

(3) An accountable person shall provide the money laundering control officer access to any information which may be of assistance to the officer to discharge his or her roles under these Regulations.

Part IV – Money laundering prevention measures

Risk assessment

8. Regular risk assessment

(1) An accountable person shall, on a regular basis, conduct antimoney laundering and terrorism financing risk assessment to enable the accountable person to identify, assess, monitor, manage and mitigate the risks associated with money laundering and terrorism financing, taking into account all relevant risk factors.

(2) An accountable person shall document the results of the risk assessment carried out under subregulation (1), and, upon request, the accountable person may make the results of the risk assessment available to any competent authority.

(3) An accountable person shall, within forty eight hours after conducting a risk assessment, give a copy of the risk assessment results to the Authority.

(4) In undertaking the risk assessment required under this regulation, an accountable person shall develop and implement mechanisms and systems that enable the accountable person to identify and assess money laundering and terrorism financing risks consistent with the nature of business and size of the accountable person.

(5) On the basis of the results of the risk assessment, an accountable person shall develop and implement policies, controls and procedures to enable the accountable person to effectively detect, manage and mitigate the identified risks in the future.

(6) An accountable person shall put in place policies, controls and procedures for monitoring the implementation of policies, controls and procedures to address the risks relating to money laundering and terrorism financing, and where necessary, enhance them on a regular basis.

(7) An accountable person shall update its risk assessment policies, controls and procedures whenever necessary, taking into account changes in its business such as entry into new markets or the introduction of new products, services and technologies.

9. Risk assessment measures in respect of new technologies and products

(1) An accountable person shall take reasonable measures to prevent the use of new technologies for money laundering and terrorism financing purposes.

(2) Without limiting the general effect of subregulation (1), an accountable person shall conduct antimoney laundering and terrorism financing risk assessment prior to the introduction of—

(a) a new product;

(b) a new business practice including a new delivery mechanism in relation to a product or service;
(c) a new technology for both new and pre-existing products or services.

(3) An accountable person shall give to the Authority a copy of the results of the risk assessment carried out under subregulation (1), within forty eight hours after conducting the risk assessment.

Movement of currency across borders

10. Cross border movement of currency and negotiable bearer instruments

(1) In accordance with section 10 of the Act—

(a) a person intending to transport or carry outside Uganda, currency or monetary instruments equivalent to or exceeding the amount of one thousand five hundred currency points, in any currency, shall, before transporting or carrying the currency or monetary instruments, notify the Uganda Revenue Authority using Form C in the Schedule and submit the Form to a customs officer at the port of exit;

(b) a person entering into Uganda and carrying domestic cash or foreign currency or negotiable bearer instruments, equivalent to or exceeding the amount of one thousand five hundred currency points shall, upon entering Uganda file a report with the Authority using Form D in the Schedule.

(2) A customs officer to whom Form C is submitted shall, without delay, submit a copy of the Form to the Authority in accordance with the Act.

(3) Where a customs officer reasonably believes that a person referred to in subsection (1)(a) has made a false declaration, or has failed to declare the currency or negotiable bearer instruments, the customs officer shall require that person to produce and show to the customs officer all the currency or negotiable bearer instruments in the possession of the person.

(4) Where a customs officer establishes that a person has made a false declaration, or has failed, or refused, or neglected to declare the currency or negotiable bearer instrument in accordance with the Act or these Regulations, the customs officer shall—

(a) seize the currency or negotiable bearer instruments in the possession of that person and shall record the seizure in Form 4 in the Schedule; and

(b) notify the Authority, within twenty four hours after the seizure of the currency or negotiable bearer instruments.

(5) A customs officer who seizes currency or negotiable bearer instruments under this regulation shall, without delay, forward the currency or negotiable bearer instruments to the Authority.

11. Internal control measures

(1) An accountable person shall develop, adopt and implement internal control measures, policies and procedures for the prevention of money laundering and financing of terrorism.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), the measures shall include—

(a) monitoring systems for complex, unusual or large transactions or suspicious activities;

(b) enhanced due diligence procedures with respect to persons and business relations and transactions carrying high risk;

(c) monitoring systems for persons in jurisdictions that do not have adequate systems to combat money laundering or terrorism financing;

12. Anonymous or fictitious accounts

(1) For the purposes of section 6 of the Act, an accountable person shall not—
   (a) open or maintain an anonymous or fictitious account; or
   (b) knowingly establish or maintain a business relationship or conduct any transaction with any person under a false name.

(2) An accountable person shall, prior to establishing any business relationship or conducting any transaction with any person, take reasonable measures to determine whether the person is acting on his or her own behalf or on behalf of a third party.

(3) In determining what constitutes reasonable measures under this regulation—
   (a) regard shall be had to all the circumstances of the case and in particular, to any guidelines or policies applicable to the accountable person; and
   (b) in the absence of any guidelines or policies, to the prevailing best practices in the relevant field of business and which is applicable to those circumstances.

Part V – Due diligence

Objectives of, and carrying out, due diligence

13. Objectives of due diligence

The objectives of carrying due diligence is to enable an accountable person—
(a) to verify the identity of a customer or person using reliable, independently sourced documents, data or information, and in the case of a person acting on behalf of a customer, to identify and verify the identity of that person and the authority to act on behalf of the person or customer;

(b) to identify beneficial owners, and to take reasonable measures to verify the identity of beneficial owners;

(c) to ascertain, in the case of legal person, the ownership and control structure of a customer or person;

(d) to obtain information relating to the purpose and nature of the business relationship; and

(e) to ensure that any transaction being conducted is consistent with the accountable person’s knowledge of the customer or person, their nature of business and risk profile, including where necessary, the source of funds.

14. Carrying out due diligence

(1) For the purposes of section 6 of the Act, an accountable person shall carry out due diligence in the following circumstances—

(a) before or during the course of opening an account for a person or customer;

(b) before establishing a business relationship with a person;

(c) before carrying out a transaction for a person with whom it is not in an established business relationship with, whether conducted as a single transaction or several transactions that appear to be linked;

(d) before carrying out a domestic or international wire transfer for a person with whom it is not in an established business relationship;

(e) where there is a suspicion of money laundering or terrorism financing by any person or customer;

(f) where there is doubt as to identity of the customer or any person, and in particular, where there is doubt as to the authenticity or adequacy of previously obtained identification data of the customer or person.

(2) An accountable person shall, on the commencement of these Regulations, carry out due diligence on all accounts and customers existing immediately before the commencement of the Regulations.

15. Due diligence to be carried out on risk based approach

(1) An accountable person shall carry out due diligence in respect of all persons and customers on a risk sensitive basis, taking into account the outcome of the risk assessment undertaken by the accountable person under these Regulations.

(2) Where an identified risk is high, an accountable person shall conduct enhanced due diligence measures consistent with the risk identified.

(3) Enhanced due diligence measures shall be applied by—

(a) obtaining further information that may assist in establishing the identity of the person or entity;

(b) applying extra measures to verify any documents supplied;
(c) obtaining senior management approval for the new business relationship or transaction sought by the person or customer;

(d) establishing the source of funds of the person or entity;

(e) carrying out on-going monitoring of the business relationship.

(4) The enhanced due diligence measures referred to in subregulation (2), shall be applied at each stage of the customer due diligence process and shall continue to be applied on an on-going basis.

(5) Where the risk identified by the accountable person is low, an accountable person shall have the discretion to conduct simplified due diligence measures but this does not apply to cases involving suspicions of money laundering or terrorism financing.

16. Performance of due diligence by third party

(1) An accountable person may use a third party to perform some due diligence measures if the third person satisfies the criteria set out in this regulation.

(2) An accountable person who wishes to rely on a third party shall enter into an agreement with the third party and the agreement shall outline the responsibilities of the accountable person and the third party.

(3) An accountable person who relies on a third party shall—

(a) obtain from the third party all the necessary information concerning the relevant elements of customer due diligence measures performed by the third person including copies of identification data and other relevant documentation;

(b) ensure that the third party is regulated, supervised or monitored by a competent authority and has measures in place to comply with customer due diligence and record-keeping requirements in accordance with the Act and these Regulations.

(4) Where an accountable person intends to rely on a third party that is based outside Uganda, the accountable person shall assess the anti-money laundering and combating terrorism financing risks that the country of the third party poses and the adequacy of customer due diligence measures adopted by financial institutions in that country.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation, ‘third party’ means another financial institution or designated non-financial business or a person that is supervised or monitored by a competent authority.

(6) Where an accountable person relies on a third party to perform some due diligence measures, the responsibility for customer due diligence measures remains with the accountable person that is relying on the third party.

17. Compliance with due diligence measures

An accountable person shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable after commencement of these Regulations, comply with the due diligence requirements set out in these Regulations.

Verification of identity of customers

18. Accountable person to identify person before establishing relationship

(1) An accountable person shall verify the identity of a person—

(a) before establishing an initial business relationship with the person;
(b) when undertaking occasional or one-off transactions for a customer or the person;
(c) when there is cause to be suspicious of any transaction or account; or
(d) when there is doubt about the veracity or adequacy of previously obtained customer information.

(2) In addition to verifying the identity of a person or customer under subregulation (1), an accountable person shall verify the following matters—
(a) the purpose and nature of the business or principal activity of the person or customer;
(b) the financial status of the person or customer;
(c) the capacity in which the person or customer is entering into the business relationship with the accountable person.

(3) Where a person or customer fails or does not, as soon as is reasonably practicable, provide sufficient proof of identity, the accountable person shall not open an account, perform any transaction or commence any business relationship with the person or customer, and in a case where a business relationship already exists with the person or customer, the accountable person shall discontinue the business relationship.

(4) An accountable person shall, on a regular basis, review the due diligence measures relating to identification information, records and documents of all existing customers in order to ensure that the information, records and documents are up to date.

(5) An accountable person shall, for the purposes of this regulation—
(a) determine the extent of due diligence measures to apply to a person or customer taking into consideration, the risk sensitivity of the person or customer, the business relationship, the product or transaction; and
