DATE OF ASSENT: 2nd February, 2024

Date of Commencement: See section 1

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows:

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Commencement

This Act shall come into force on a date appointed by the Minister by statutory instrument.

2. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“authorised explosive” means an explosive listed in Schedule 2 to this Act as an authorised explosive;

“blaster” means a person registered and certified under section 37 to be in charge of and responsible for the loading and firing of explosives or explosives materials;

“blasting material” means a material or mixture consisting of fuel or oxidizer that is intended for the purpose of blasting;

“committee” means the National Explosives Committee established under section 5;

“controlling interest” means any person who has the power to directly or indirectly influence the direction of the management of the person, whether through the ownership of shares or securities, voting, partnership or other ownership interests, agreement or otherwise;

“currency point” has the meaning assigned to it in Schedule 1 to this Act;

“dealer” means a person licensed under this Act to trade in explosives specified in Schedule 4;

“explosive” means—

- (a) a substance, or a mixture of substances, in a solid, liquid or gaseous state, which is capable of producing an explosion;
- (b) a pyrotechnic substance in a solid or liquid state, or a mixture of such substances, designed to produce an effect by heat, light, sound, gas or smoke, or a combination of these, as the result of non-detonative self-sustaining exothermic chemical reaction, including pyrotechnic substances which do not evolve gases;

- (c) any article or device containing one or more substances contemplated in paragraph (a);
- (d) any plastic explosive; or
- (e) any other substance or article declared by the Minister to be an explosive under section 4;

“explosives factory” means premises licensed to manufacture authorised explosives under section 15;

“explosives incident” means any of the following events involving an explosive where—

- (a) an explosive is, or appears to have been lost or stolen;
- (b) an accidental explosion, fire or spillage occurs;
- (c) an explosion causes the death of, or an injury to, a person;
- (d) an explosion causes damage to property; and
- (e) an event occurs, including a misfire, with the potential to cause any of the events mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (d), other than an event that usually happens when handling or using an explosive;

“explosives magazine” means any building or part of a building or any structure licensed under this Act for the storage of explosives or explosives material;

“explosives shop” means premises licensed for dealing or trading in authorised explosives under section 21;

“manufacture” means the making or processing of any explosive and includes the division of any explosive into components by any process, the conversion of any kind of explosive into another kind and the alteration, testing or reworking of any explosive;

“mental illness” has the meaning assigned to it under the Mental Health Act, 2018;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for internal affairs;

(3) The Minister may, by regulations, prescribe the procedure and requirements for the application for a dealers licence.

22. Explosives for trial or experiments

(1) A person who wishes to manufacture, use, transport, store or possess explosives for trial, experiment, research or examination may apply to the Minister for a licence to undertake such activities.

(2) The Minister may, on the advice and recommendation of the committee, issue to a person a licence to manufacture, use, transport, store or possess unauthorised or prohibited explosive for trial, experiment, research or examination.

(3) The licence issued under this section shall be for a specified period of time as the Minister may direct.

Consideration of application and grant of licence

23. Consideration of application for licence

(1) Where an application for licence is made to the Minister under this Act, the Minister shall forward the application to the committee to conduct inquiries into the suitability of the application and the applicant and make a recommendation to the Minister.

(2) The committee may conduct the following inquiries to ascertain the suitability of the application and the applicant—

- (a) identity, character, mental and physical health of the applicant in the case of an individual, or the directors and principal officers in the case of a company;
- (b) whether the applicant has the relevant experience and expertise in handling explosives;
- (c) whether the applicant or directors in the case of company have ever been convicted of an offence;
- (d) whether the applicant is not insolvent;
- (e) whether the applicant has the adequate facilities for handling explosives;
- (f) whether the applicant has experienced and skilled employees to handle explosives; and
- (g) whether the applicant has in place adequate safety measures.

(3) The committee may, in the process of conducting the inquiries under subsection (2), require any person, department or agency of government to furnish information to it regarding the suitability of the applicant for a licence under this Act.

(4) The committee shall consult with the local authorities of the place where the applicant seeks to undertake the activities as to the suitability of the proposed site or premises.

(5) The Chairperson of the committee may, by written notice, require an applicant for a licence to furnish to the committee additional information to enable the committee make a decision on the application.

24. Grant of licence

(1) The Minister shall, upon receiving the recommendation of the committee, consider the application and may, if satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements, grant a licence to the applicant.

(2) The Minister may grant a licence subject to such conditions as the Minister may consider necessary and may, from time to time, add, vary or substitute the conditions as he or she deems appropriate.

(3) A licensee shall not manufacture, in the case of a manufacturer of an explosives magazine or store, in the case of an operator of an explosives magazine, a category of an explosive that is not specified in the licence of a manufacturer or operator.

(4) A licence granted under this Act, other than a licence to establish an explosives factory or manufacturing plant, shall be valid up to the 31st day of December of the year in which it is issued.

25. Refusal to grant licence

(1) The Minister may, where he or she is satisfied, after conducting an inquiry, that the applicant is not suitable to hold a licence, refuse to grant a licence.

(2) Where the Minister refuses to grant a licence in accordance with subsection (1), he or she shall issue notice of his or her refusal to the applicant, stating the reasons within the time specified by regulations.

26. Transfer of licence

(1) A person issued with a licence under this Act may transfer the licence issued to another person with the prior approval and consent of the Minister, if that other person is suitable to be issued with a licence under this Act.

(2) The Minister shall, before granting his or her approval and consent to transfer a licence, seek for the guidance of the committee.

(3) The committee shall conduct a due diligence on the person to whom a licence is sought to be transferred to ascertain whether the person is suitable to hold the licence.

27. Renewal of licence

(1) A licence issued under this Act is renewable upon satisfying the Minister that the terms and conditions of the expired licence were complied with.

(2) An application for renewal of a licence shall be made to the Minister at least three months before the expiry of the licence.

28. Suspension and revocation of licence

(1) The Minister may suspend or revoke a licence issued under this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (1), the Minister may suspend or revoke a licence if satisfied that the holder of a licence—

- (a) gave false or misleading information at the time of applying for the licence;
- (b) is not complying with the terms and conditions of the licence;

PART V—GENERAL

40. Offence committed by legal entity

Where an offence provided for under this Act is committed by a legal entity, a director or the executive head of the legal entity is deemed to have committed the offence.

41. Duty of care

(1) A person conducting any activity involving explosives shall take reasonable precautions and care to avoid endangering the safety, health or property of any person.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years, or both.

(3) Court may, in addition to the penalty imposed under subsection (2), order the person convicted to pay compensation to the victim.

42. Precaution against fire or explosion

(1) A person in control, employed by or in occupation of an explosives factory, manufacturing plant, explosives magazine, vehicle transporting explosives, store, or premises, shall take due precaution to prevent an accident by fire or explosion by—

- (a) preventing unauthorised persons from accessing the factory, manufacturing plant, explosives magazine, vehicle transporting explosives, store, or premises; and
- (b) avoiding any activity which may cause fire or explosion.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years, or both.

43. Reporting of explosive incidents

(1) Where an incident by explosion or fire in connection with an explosives factory, manufacturing plant, explosives magazine, vehicle transporting explosives, store, or premises occurs and causes loss of life, personal injury or damage to property, the licensee or the holder of a permit shall immediately give notice of the incident and the loss occasioned to the Chief Explosives Inspector.

(2) The form of the notice referred to under subsection (1) shall be prescribed by the Minister by regulations.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years, or both.

44. Safety measures

(1) A licensee or a holder of a permit shall put in place measures to safeguard persons, property and the environment.

(2) The Chief Explosives Inspector may, on the recommendation of the committee, from time to time, issue guidelines relating to safety measures to be undertaken by a licensee or the holder of a permit.

(3) A person who fails to comply with the guidelines issued by the Chief Explosives Inspector under subsection (2), commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years, or both.

45. Power of Minister to make regulations

(1) The Minister may make regulations for the better carrying into effect of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (1), the Minister may make regulations for—

- (a) the construction of explosives factory, manufacturing plants or explosives magazines;
- (b) the conditions under which the manufacture of explosives may be carried on;
- (c) the storage of explosives, whether in explosives magazines or elsewhere;
- (d) the use of explosives;

- (e) fees payable under this Act;
- (f) the packaging, transport, importation and exportation of explosives, and the making of special rules governing the packaging and transportation at individual places and the landing and handling of explosives at entry and exit ports;
- (g) the issue of a permit to a dealer in explosives, the conditions of any such permit, the restrictions which may be placed upon the sale or disposal of explosives to particular classes of persons, and the quantity of any explosives which may be purchased by any person or company granted a permit;
- (h) the inquiry into the circumstances of explosions endangering or causing injury to persons or property or death, and for the giving of notice of all such explosions;
- (i) the prevention of trespass in or upon an explosives factory, or in or upon explosives magazines or other place where explosives are kept;
- (j) the tests to which explosives, or the raw materials from which explosives are manufactured, are liable to be submitted;
- (k) the manner in which appeals for refusal of licence or permits under this Act shall be notified and conducted;
- (l) prescribing the statistics which manufacturers, dealers and users may be required to supply;
- (m) for the protection of life and property;
- (n) for the supervision of explosives work places; and
- (o) any other matter for purposes of enforcing the provisions of this Act.

- (3) Regulations made under this section may prescribe in respect of a contravention of the regulations—
- (a) a penalty not exceeding a fine of five hundred currency points or imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both;
  - (b) in the case of a second or subsequent contravention, a fine not exceeding one thousand currency points or imprisonment not exceeding seven years, or both;
  - (c) in the case of a continuing contravention, an additional penalty not exceeding fifty currency points in respect of each day on which the offence continues; and
  - (d) that the court shall order the forfeiture of anything used in the commission of the offence.

46. Power of Minister to amend Schedule 1

The Minister may, by statutory instrument, with the approval of Cabinet, amend Schedule 1.

47. Repeal and savings

- (1) The Explosives Act, Cap. 298 is repealed.
- (2) A person who, before the commencement of this Act, obtained a licence, permit or written approval under the Explosives Act, Cap. 298, shall, within twelve months from the commencement of this Act, apply for a licence or permit in accordance with this Act.
- (3) Any statutory instrument made under the Explosives Act, Cap. 298, repealed under subsection (1) and which is in force immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall remain in force so far as it is not inconsistent with this Act, until it is revoked by a statutory instrument made under this Act.
